

Dear Mr. Helge Visby

After careful consideration, we would like to welcome you as a full member of Tenní Sars Truthseekers. Enclosed you will find a clay seal, that upon shown, will grant you entrance to any of our safe houses scattered throughout the kingdom.

Please record any of your findings, and send them to our main office in Calnaes at your earliest convenience. We suggest hiding these reports and any findings you deem safe for transport, in commonplace items. Like sown into thick cloaks have been a popular trick among our members so far. Also, if you ever need a new cloak, we have spares.

We must urgently point out that the priesthood is becoming increasingly suspicious of our activities. Lately King Ehar has doubled the 'Special Guard', and on request of the bishop, increased both the amount of searches for our members as well as the amount of arrests. So please be careful. Your safety first. Always.

If you ever find yourself in one of the following towns, you will find a warm welcome and a hot meal at:

Eastbury - Kromholt's Curious Emporium

Alling - Miss Jensen at Miss Jensen's Tavern

Svostrup - Kim Jorgensen, the blacksmith and local sheriff

Westbury - Fin Pedersen, tavern keeper at Røde Kro

Voldby - The Teller twins, living in the eastern end of town

Tilst - none since Father Olsen was taken to 'reschooling' in

Calnaes

Måløv - Lady Ingrid Christiansen, widower to late Mayor

Christiansen

Calnaes - Yours truly, Kasper Wivel, owner of Little Lane

Apothecary

Good luck with your findings. And thank you for all you have already done for our small society. May the truth see light

Kasper Wivel

Chief Archaeologist